Hallmarks

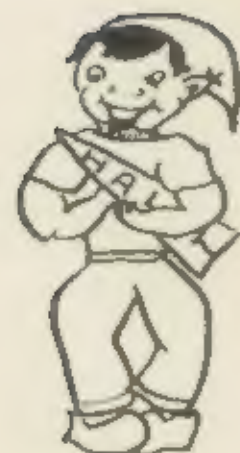

Ex Libris

Quite the chap as you can see—
They call me Hall High Joe,
And why they picked me for this job,
That I'll never know.

But, if you'll let me be your friend
And follow what I do,
You'll have a lot of fun at least,
Class of '52.

Hall High, we salute you.
You're nearest to our hearts.
While banners fly you'll shine on high;
We've loved you from the start.
With loyalty and might
We shall lead you on to fame.
We'll always fight, fight, fight,
For dear West Hartford High.

HALLMARKS

WILLIAM HALL HIGH SCHOOL
West Hartford, Connecticut

DEDICATION

To our school — to memories which we shall cherish always — to the classrooms where so many hours have been spent in preparing us for life; to all our teachers without whose understanding and guidance we could never have done our work and still kept smiling; to Mr. Harriman, who made us sad by leaving; to Mr. Weyland who has done so much in so little time; to school policies which taught us every so often that a little self control goes a long way; to lunches in the cafeteria and ice cream outside in spring and fall; to assemblies, a lift on long Friday afternoons; to all the underclassmen whose friendship we have shared; to our younger brothers and sisters who we hope will enter with more confidence because of our experience; to the Cornerstone Club and the Boosters — to the spirit of our school.

To all these things we, the staff of Hallmarks, 1952, dedicate our book. Thank you, Hall High, for three wonderful years. And a special thank you to the faculty — our teachers, our leaders, our guides through the most uncertain years of our lives. You have led us up the path toward education. We still have a long way to go; we will remember you always — you showed us the way.

Welcome to Mr. Weyland

To Mr. Henry A. Weyland, we, the class of 1952, reaffirm our welcome and express our gratitude for his fine service to our school. In his first year as principal at Hall, he has initiated many worth while plans and has demonstrated his sincere interest in youth. He has worked untiringly in our behalf. Through the new "College Night" program and increased guidance counseling, we Seniors have been greatly assisted in planning our educational and vocational futures.

We at Hall are proud to have Mr. Weyland as our principal. Under his expert leadership we know that Hall High will carry on its high traditions and continue to be recognized as one of the outstanding high schools in America.

HUMAN RELATIONS

Look! My report card's in technicolor!

TECHNICAL SKILLS

William Hall High School is more than a building. It is an ideal, an ideal nourished by men like William Hall, Ray W. Harriman and Henry A. Weyland; an ideal cherished by teachers, students, and alumni, an ideal that represents American education at its best.

Hall was founded and lives for the purpose of teaching students the lessons of the past, the greatness of the present, and the possibilities of the future. These are the means by which Hall lives.

Human Relations — Here at Hall we learn the values of true friendship; we learn how to live with one another; we learn how to govern our actions.

Fine Arts — We come to realize the significance of the cultural aspects of life; we learn of the pleasures that come from music, from art, and from dance.

Language Arts and Communications — The methods of expressing ourselves are taught to us, both in English and the foreign tongues, we learn how to write, to read, and to speak effectively.

Technical Skills — Science, mathematics, business courses — these are the skills that Hall gives us for future use in the professional and industrial fields.

Health and Recreation — We learn how to play the game, how to win and lose; we learn how to develop our bodies in order to live healthful lives.

This then, is Hall High.

ADMINISTRATION

EDMUND H. THORNE
Superintendent of Schools

Congratulations, Class of 1952! You have done well, and we are proud of your achievements. As you are about to take the next steps in your careers, our best wishes, hopes, and prayers go with you. For we have an investment in you and we are interested in your future.

May you always think straight and do right. Through useful work and service to others may you experience the real joy of living that brings true happiness.

We are expecting great things from you. Good luck!

Sincerely yours,

Edmund H. Thorne

BOARD OF EDUCATION

HENRY A. WEYLAND
Principal

As you, the members of the Class of 1952, are anxiously waiting to take the next step in your careers, I would like to wish God-speed to each and every one of you. It is my sincere hope that nothing may interfere with the plans you have made, that the lessons you have learned at Hall High School may stand you in good stead, and that the places you carve for yourselves in society will call for the best you are capable of giving. If you face each new task with the same eager anticipation I have seen demonstrated this year, if you meet all new acquaintances with the same happy smiles I have had flashed my way, and if you work with others with the same degree of cooperation I have experienced from each of you, I am sure that your tasks will be made easy and your rewards great.

It is my earnest prayer that peace, both between nations and within each heart, may be yours in the days that lie ahead.

—Henry A. Weyland

Another spring is with us. Another class of graduates goes forth to test its mettle in a world upset by emotion and strife.

It is our fondest hope that you, the members of the Class of 1952, will find that the knowledge, the training and the insight you gained at the William Hall High School will stand you in good stead in shaping this into a brighter, a happier world. We shall rejoice with you in your triumphs and we shall grieve with you in your sorrows, but our best wishes will go with you always.

HISTORY

Fall of 1949

Dear Class of '53.

How mixed-up can a person be? Junior High was never like this! Seniors, room numbers, and 'up' and 'down' stairs were responsible for most of our confusion during our first days at Hall on September 7, 1949. We had finally gained our bearings. The Gridiron season had barely ended when we ventured timidly to our first big formal at Hall, the Senior Harvest, which left a gay imprint of Hall's social life on our minds. President Kenny Swanson was the leader of our first class at Hall and Roy Johnson and Nancy Cedar were elected Vice-President and Secretary, respectively. Many of us struggled through the Christmas Concert in the chorus, looking up enviously at the blue and white Choir robes. Suddenly, something new to us and to the whole community sprang up—the Cornerstone Club was in action! The buzzing of this new fund had just started on its rugged campaign as vacation came around, much to our relief.

Winter of 1950

We untangled ourselves from the New Year's Eve streamers and balloons and appeared a bit bedraggled in school on the third of the new year. What we needed was another vacation to recover from our vacation! The turn of the century had come and we all hoped the next 50 years would bring us luck and happiness—the next two, anyway! The Gaiety was like nothing we'd seen before! This school really went all out for a night's entertainment.

Spring of 1950

We'd survived Midyears, a vacation, and the play, "Ever Since Eve," fairly successfully. Cheerleader tryouts were held and the following girls were chosen to replace the senior girls leaving: Debbie Mathes, Judy Phinney, Barbara Surgenor, Margaret Swann, and L. Lee Watson.

Suddenly it was Junior Prom time. Of course, a King and Queen of a dance is a big thing, and we made sure we were there to see the traditional crowning. Nothing much but dances and baseball—and, of course, studying—that spring. At the Senior Reception Tony Pastor and his famous band were on stage with what seemed like two thousand dancing to his music. Glad all the school formals weren't that crowded. Vacation time, and we found ourselves quite proud to think we'd survived a year of high school with hardly any trouble at all.

Dear Class of '53

Somehow, we actually looked forward to returning to Hall at the end of our summer vacation. The football season came and went, not too exciting, but we saw several of our own classmates on the field. Class officers were elected: Kenny Swanson, President; Roger Johnson, Vice-President; Ellie Erickson, Secretary; and Neil Prior, Treasurer. New, collapsible, metal-framed bleachers which were long awaited gave the gym a "New Look". Christmas came again and was gone in a flash.

Winter of 1951

Several of us had the most wonderful time at Stowe, Vermont, on the three day ski trip—got loads of skiing in! The new Honor Society members were elected after Midyears and we were thrilled. Before we knew it, our Varsity Basketball Team was playing in the tournaments at the New Haven Arena. Quite an honor, we'd say! The Cornerstone Club was still going at a rapid pace, and Bob Brabec was elected President and Debbie Mathes, Secretary.

Spring of 1951

Hank Holt, Liz Robbins, Pat Quigg, and Martha Tuttle all did swell jobs taking the leading roles in the spring play, "Every Family Has One." Top honors of our class were handed out to Margret Swahn, newly elected to the post of Editor-in-Chief of Hallmarks, in the form of the Elnora Key, and Ted Johnson, to whom the Harvard Book Award was presented. We gave our first formal May 4th, and it was a huge success—fountain and all. Debbie Mathes and Ken Swanson reigned at our Junior Prom and the following were in the court, Carolyn Swanson, John Stearns, Ellie Erickson, Bob Brabet, Judy Phinney, Neil Prior, Nancy Cedar, and Roger Johnson. Junior Ushers for the graduation of the Class of '51, Ed Dibble, Marilyn Johnson, Ted Johnson, Bersy Kaehle, Emil Liebewein, Mary Ann McMahon, Pat Mines, Carolyn Pratt, Neil Prior, Carol Rochon, Sally Summers, and Margret Swahn, were announced as the top 12 of our class. Ed Dibble won first prize in the Hartford County American Legion Oratorical Contest and was also named Editor-in-Chief of Highlights—a young Horace Greeley in our midst. There was a party for Mr. Harriman, our wonderful principal, in honor of his retirement given by the students at Hall. We laughed at the impersonations, but we felt very sad as Mr. Harriman gave his final words to his last high school student body. The girls in our class had more fun celebrating the last day of school with dungarees and a breakfast at the West Hartford Diner. And at 9 15, June 15, we scurried eagerly from work to play.

SENIOR YEAR

Dear Class of '53

Finally we'd reached the top at Hall! The first day back we met our new principal, Mr. Weyland, who became a wonderful friend to us all. The Boosters' Club sprang up to support our Athletic Department and sponsored marvelous car cavalcades and Friday night rallies. The first Annual Homecoming Queen, Debbie Mathes, whose attendants were Carolyn Swanson, Jackie Watson, Nancy Cedar, and Judy Phinney, was crowned by Shirley Ann Sullivan, Tobacco Festival Queen. Naturally the highlight of our first term as Seniors was the Senior Harvest—a really superb formal. President Roy Johnson, Vice-President George Skinner, Secretary Ellie Erickson, and Treasurer Harriet Hancock (later replaced by Hank Holt) were elected officers of our class. Coach Harper produced a terrific Soccer Team that fall which took first place in the Class A State Championship. Honor Society officers were elected—Mary Ann McMahon, President, Ed Dibble, Vice-President, Karen Berglund, Secretary, and Eero Raig, Treasurer. The poor photographers! We were running in and out of Lorings for two months trying to satisfy our vanity for class pictures. Everyone who was acquainted with our new exchange teacher, Mr. Flynn, from England, found him an extremely friendly "chap." Everyone had fun at the numerous Christmas parties and dances that gave our vacation just the right touch.

Winter of 1952

Planning our classbook kept us busier than ever, and the editors and typists were running around like wild. The first College Night with representatives from over thirty colleges was held and agreed upon as a worthwhile annual meeting. In the midst of basketball games and Midyears, College Boards came around to remind us that we'd really taken the first step in planning our future. Ed Dibble again gave Hall an outstanding name placing second in the State Oratorical Contest. A code, listing six dating standards by which the West Hartford youth was to abide, was sent home to the parents of all teenagers, and caused much ado. Hats were off to Wes Eustis, who broke the district record in maintaining the highest average of points in Basketball for the '52 season. Again the Gaiety had a tremendous outcome on March 15. Margret Swahn was chosen as the D.A.R.-Award winner, and she was fully recognized as being well worthy of the merit. More than half a school year had gone by—vacation rolled around, and our last time at Stowe as a "Y" group arrived. We had so much fun that we hated to come home.

Spring of 1952

In the spring-time every young man's fancy turns to baseball and track, if nothing else! It seems wonderful to get out of doors again for sports and fun. The Senior Reception, Class Night, and Graduation—not to mention the newly scheduled final exams—terminated our high school career. Here's wishing to you, the Class of 1953, all the fun and happiness that we experienced at Hall High.

Most sincerely

CLASS OF 1952

Judy Phinney

WILL OF THE CLASS OF '52

The Class of nineteen hundred and fifty-two, being of extraordinarily sound mind and tired body, do hereby leave this our last will and testament.

First

Carolyn Swanson and Joy Schectman leave their sophistication to Lynn Hollister. To the Junior cheerleaders, Judy Phinney leaves "the sky as the limit" for jumps as wonderful as hers. Herb Heimov leaves his Charlestoning feet to Dave Stearns. Bob Brabec leaves his ability to make touchdowns to Danny Lawler. The Latin III classes give Latin back to the Romans. Bob Thorne leaves those beautiful trumpet notes to Gabriel. Sue Taylor takes off in her jeep (T.T.T.). Mary Bolster leaves her wonderful personality to the Junior girls. Elsie Ghent, Connie Garber, and Fayth Baggish leave their wit to Kathy Soulen. To Sylvia Nano, Barbara Badgley leaves her pretty nylon blouses. John Saunders and Ernie Bergeron draw their way to success. Margie Blech and Gail Bockus leave their love of fun to Lois Baumstein. To Robert E. Lee, Al Briggaman leaves his southern patriotism. Ann Cave leaves her athletic ability and her good sportsmanship to Carole Sue Rodimon. To Judy Swenson, Nancy Cedar leaves her all around personality. Joan Cherof leaves her beauty to Irene Gustafson. Ed Cichowitz leaves his racing cars to Don Van Wart. To Bob Worrest, Logan Clemow leaves his girl friends. Ginny Collins leaves her house open to Class of '52 parties. Iris Cohen leaves her rhythmic feet to Ellie Lou Wahlberg. Don DeBella leaves his Charles Atlas frame to Bob Potter.

Second

Ed Dibble bequeaths "Highlights" and his world renowned speeches to Tom Siegel. Margret Swahn leaves her accomplishments (including her best, Hallmarks). Record-shattering Wesley Eustis leaves his wonderful basketball ability to Mark Gassner. Howie Falkin and Al Johnson add their quick wit to that of Dick Armstrong. Dick Ginn and Corinne Jensen leave their golden notes to Dick Downes and Sue Waggenbaur. Naomi Goldman and Betty Levine leave their jokes to everyone to enjoy. Bobbie Green leaves in pursuit of Lowie. Strat Gunning leaves his adoration of girls, (or is it the other way around?) To Susan Muske, Jay Hallenbeck leaves her flirtatious ways. Averill Smith and Harriet Hancock left, much to our regret. Dave Hartshorn and Joel Cutler depart from Mr. Lindsey and their movie projectors. Hank Holt leaves his post at the down stairway that everyone goes up. Al Humes will give his golden tuba to anyone strong enough to carry it. Roger Johnson leaves his position on the baseball team to anyone who wants to get to first base. Roy Johnson leaves his prying lens to Tom Pacinda. To Dick Zeigler, jet-propelled Ronnie Krivitz leaves his sharp shooting. Barbara Krivitz leaves cheering for Ronnie. Hilibilly Tom Brennen leaves his vocal ability to the hills. (Only kidding, son). Bob Lasker leaves his friendliness to all. Fran Lewis leaves her leadership to Shirley Kosiorek. Nancy McCone leaves her love of commotion to Jane Barton. Dick McGurk leaves his dictionary to Webster. Mary Ann McMahon leaves her brain to the class of '53, who will need it. Cookie Murphy we leave in search of fattening food. To Dick Cutran, Neil Prior and George Skinner leave their terrific personalities. Eero Raig and Yvette Bedard leave their courtesy in the hope that the Juniors will use it. Eddie Re leaves his four wheeled vehicle to Norm D'Agostino. To Liz Robbins we leave a pair of vocal chords to replace the ones she wore out at the Hall games. Ben Rothfeder leaves his tennis racket (as if he'd ever part with it) to Harvey Hoberman. John Stearns leaves in pursuit of more girls.

Third

Sally Summers, Judy Rulnick, and Elaine Nelson gladly leave the headaches received while being assistant editors of Hallmarks. Barbara Surgenor leaves with Larry Barrows. John Welsh leaves his good right arm and all his pitching ability to Bob Robinson. To Diana Webster, Ann Weberg leaves her courtesy. Mary Winters leaves Hall in better shape since she arrived. Gordon Tracy and Bob Wareing leave with their good looks. To Russ Brignano, Kenny Swanson leaves his all-roundness. Debbie Mathes leaves all the work she has done for Hall. Bruce Norcross leaves his chessmen to the Chess Board. To Frank Dellert, Bill Perkins leaves his skis. Harriot Fuller leaves her sister. The Katz twins leave, still trying to tell each other apart. Ted Johnson leaves on his magic carpet. Jackie Watson leaves her sweet ways to all future Hall girls. Tom Roy and Ray Foley leave their good-naturedness to Bud Strpka. Phyllis Antarsh leaves her amber hair to "Forever." Betty Borjeson, Eleanor Erickson, Jinny Benson, Alice Gustafson, and Carol Ohlson leave for Sweden. Betty Freeman leaves her cashier post to Edith Billington. Phyllis Talbot, Betsey Starr, Pat Rooney, Doris Beal, Carole Ballot, Ellen Ann Reynolds, and Joan Simon leave their happy-go-lucky ways. Pat Mines, Nancy Swanson, Carol Sawyer, Alice Livingston, and Jane Buckley leave their joie de vivre to all future Hallites. Emil Liebewein, Gary Snell, John Crabtree, Dave Hakewessell, Dick Killier, Bob Adams, Jack Kallinich, Ronnie Boss, and Harry Blackington happily leave. The senior class leave the teachers some headache tablets for next year. (What will you do without us?)

And so we leave with this final parting document to Hall.

Signed, sealed, and delivered in behalf of the Supreme Group of Beings, the Class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-two

CLASS PROPHECY - 1952

Where will you be in '72? What will you be doing? To answer these questions, here in print is the recording of an average day in your life in 1972, twenty years hence.

At the early hour of five-thirty in the morn' you wake to the sounds of your Arnds Alarm Clock. You rise from your Manyon-made Mattress, dress yourself in Croteau-designed clothes, and brush your teeth with your Dr Adam's toothbrush and Dr. Morin's toothpaste.

You enter the kitchen to fix breakfast. Higgins' Vitamin Tablets, perfected in the Starr laboratories, and bacon and eggs from the Fredericks' Farm comprise the menu. You bring in the milk, Parker's Pasteurized, of course. The morning paper, The N. Y. Times, co-edited by Ed Dibble and Margret Swahn, is your companion at the breakfast table.

Headlines in the Times tell you that President Swanson has just written a letter (on Steele-styled Stationery, naturally) to music critic Fayth Baggish with an apology for having a singing daughter. A new foreign policy is announced by Secretary of State Ann Cave and Secretary of Defense against Men Debbie Mathes, who have substituted rouge and lipstick for wars and weapons. You notice a column by Barbara Rubsnow, who writes about Senator Braggaman's latest fight for the Confederacy.

Enough of this mad world, it's time for you to get to work. You race past your neighbors, Abbate and Abbott, who are frantically looking for people to join their Bachelors' Club. You board the Bud Ford Company Bus, which is driven by Enoch Brady, and sit next to an old colleague of yours, Karen Berglund, a famous chemist, who has just discovered a platinum substitute for mud packs, (to be given to society-seeking dogs).

You get off the vehicle in the heart of Manhattan and head for the office. You pass the Ghent, McCone, and Crane Dye Works, where that new sensational color "Torchy Red" originated. You see a large dress shop owned by executive Joy Shechtman, which is the headquarters for those two fashion experts Bolster and Briscoe. The Glemou Publishing House is right next to your office. Here you see on sale two new books, The Distinguished Gentleman, an autobiography by Kirby Malcolm-Smith, and a sequel to Cheaper by the Dozen, called I Think So Too by two mothers, Barbara Badgley and Ruth Anderson.

Finally, a couple of minutes before nine, you reach your destination, which is the Olson Office Building. You get in the Hubbard Elevator, and Frank Kundahl takes you up to the fifth floor. The receptionist Dorothy Davis takes a look at her Walsh watch and gives you an understanding nod.

You punch the timeclock made by the Meyer Mechanical Instrument Company and sit down at your desk. In your mail is an insurance ad from your salesman, Richard Smith of the Stearn's Insurance Company for Unmarried Men (married ones too great a risk!). The second is a personal letter from an old school chum, Dick Berry, who tells you of his contacts with the ambassadors to Sweden, Peter Ericson; to Germany, Eero Raig; and to France, Jacques Juneau, and his impressions of the new oceanliner, the Robert E. Lasker, named after its designer, and captained by Harry Blackington. Another letter invites you to attend a meeting of the UN this afternoon, the discussion today centering on your profession. You tell your private secretary, Marilyn Sanderson, that you plan to close the shop early and attend. She thanks you kindly for letting her out early too, because she so wanted to see that new picture at the Trodson Theater, entitled "Mrs. Barlow Builds Her Dream House" or "I Couldn't Get Jack To Do It," starring Nancy Cedar, Pat Quigg, and Martha Tuttle, and directed by Mary Winters.

The first thing on your agenda is an appointment with Tom Sullivan, a prominent lawyer in town who dropped in to discuss his newest case. It seems that the defendant, Sue Taylor, is learning how to drive, (a Cschowitz car, of course), and she can't seem to understand why it's destructive to knock down a few pedestrians in the process. Your friend tells you that the defendant was humiliated by the prosecuting attorney, Dick McGurk, and Judge Roy Johnson, when claims were made that she knocked down two unsuspecting men named Pete Davison and Allen Anderson, and broke the big glass windows at the Gunning Electric Company and the Skinner Telephone Co. Office. The judge, Roy Johnson, tried to revoke her license, but this, she claimed, was hardly a fair punishment, because she had never possessed one. Sergeants McCue and Kallinich escorted her gently from the scene, and the case was dismissed.

"Such is business," says Mr. Sullivan, depositing the ashes of his Dennler Cigar in your ashtray upon leaving to join Henry Holt, Dick Clinton, and Dick Killer for lunch at the Professional Men's Club.

After this very important interview has terminated, you settle back in your chair attempting to put on the impression of a working man. You are interrupted only by the quarrels between the two businessmen, Roy Zachariasen and Herb Schleicher, who are working in an adjoining office.

Your secretary buzzes you and informs you that there is a magazine salesman, Gene Gallo, in the outer office who claims he's working his weary way through college. He presents you with the latest edition of Lewis's LADIES REVIEW, HOW TO DRAW by Ernie Bergeron, and a copy of the Katz AND Katz AND JAMMER KIDS COMIC BOOK. You thumb through these literary masterpieces and find ads for several well-known businesses, amongst them Falkin's False Faces for Funny Characters and Lundberg's and Hunt's Elevated Shoes.

You are interrupted by a telephone call from your friend, John Flattery, who wants to know if you'd like to place a small wager on the outcome of the Krivitz-Coleman heavy-weight fight tomorrow night with his boss, David Shay. Your financial secretary, Don Ducharme, tells you "no go," so you give John the excuse that you can't talk now because you are in the presence of Congressmen Bill Smith and Bill Perkins, who have taken over where Mr. Kefauver left off.

At noon you hurriedly leave the office and head for the Rotbfeder Restaurant on 42nd Street where you brush by a few old schoolmates who have entered the teaching profession and are in town today for a convention. They include Dorss Beal, a college English professor; Joel Cusler, now a high school music instructor; Sally Summers and Dick Pelletier, who are keeping their history classes lively with stories of the Class of '52; and Jean Garsden, Mary Holcombe, and Marian Lougee, who are teaching young students how to put on their rubbers and raincoats in the first grade.

Your favorite waitress, Jinny Benson, finally gets around to serving you. You order some Gustafson's Swedish coffee, a plateful of Colbert Crackers, and a bowl of Simon's Salty Soup. She shouts the order to the famous Chefs Liske and Mullarkey. You sit down next to a kindly looking gentleman who tells you his name is John Saunders and that he is making a hobby of analyzing psycho-analysts. He tells you that when he went to see his doctor, Ned Prior, a well-known specialist, (he specializes in patients) he saw several former classmates now acting as nurses, Betty Borjeson and Virginia Foley, and the medical secretary, Nancy Swanson. Since Dr. Prior found him in perfect condition he suggested that he go see those two specialists, Robert Livingston and Bruce Norcross. This he did. They gave him a dose of scientists Kaeble's and Cunningham's new discovery and told him to await development of symptoms. The experiment has not yet been concluded.

When you finish your delectable meal, you walk slowly back to the office. You bump into several people. Two members of the Public Works Department, whom you recognize as Lew Sykes and Bill Fleming, get in your way but blame you for the whole affair, threatening to inform Mayor Margery Blech of your misbehavior. A street photographer, Dave Hartshorn, snaps your profile. You ask him the importance of the occasion, and he tells you he was sent by his studio, Piper Pictures, to get a picture of the gentleman who just inherited the ownership of the Wessberg National Bank and its two million dollar deposits, a Mr. Dudley Moulton. You're sorry that the guy with the camera wasn't right about your identity and hurry onward. Two men, who introduce themselves as Ed Babich and Bob Blume, stop you and try to get you to join the Cornerstone Club or some such organization. You avoid the situation and decide you'll get into a taxi before you get into any more trouble.

A cab comes by and you hop in. The driver is none other than Enrico Biella. You share the horseless carriage with Wes Eurtss, a great public speaker, who is known for his fast presentations. He tells you about his meeting world travelers Dick Reed, Allan Johnson, and Dick Nelson who have just gone to Paris to find out if what they say is true about romance over there. You get out in front of your office building and nearly stumble over Dick Burgess, Ray Desulero, and Bob Smith who have just returned from an African Safari.

You reach your establishment just in time to tune in on the latest sports news on Station WHHS, owned and operated by Breuster Smith. You listen to the commercial for Re Hot-Rods for Ripsnorting Races. Your favorite sports commentator, Roger Johnson, is on next. He tells you that Ronny Perrott, Dick Anderson, and Harry McGlew placed first, second, and third in the National Golf Finals, and that the St. Louis Browns are a sure bet for the pennant with pitcher Dick Ginn, and players Joe Rossano and Gary Snell on the team. Coach Brabec of Yale's 57½-game undefeated team says he'll not weaken to Coach DeBella's boasts of Harvard's superiority. Swimmer Ronnie Boss has just swum the Atlantic Ocean (north to south, of course).

Roger then informs you of the feminine athletic events of the day. It seems that Agnes Murphy has just won the Olympic high hurdles, and Alice Livingston, the broad jump for the American team. Gail Bockus lost the 100-mile relay because she stopped to apply lipstick on the last lap.

Your commentator signs off with an ad for Tamaccio's Tasty Tomatos and informs you that the next program is "Hallenbeck's Advice to the Lovelorn." You decide that this is beyond your intellectual standard and turn off your Asch portable.

Your secretary buzzes you and says it's time for the UN meeting. You close up shop and merrily walk the streets of New York. A man you recognize as Ronny Lee stops you and asks for a contribution to a worthy cause, The Lee Foundation. Caught in a philanthropic mood, you give him a few pennies and wander onward. In a store window, you notice the names of two famous architects, Hines and Hakewessel, builders of the Crabtree Bridge, named after the famous Supreme Court Justice. Another establishment on the way is the Watson and Watson Date Bureau where Barbara Traska, Peggy Johnson, and Gordon Tracy are employed.

Looming ahead is the United Nations building where representatives of all the nations in the world are gathered. President of the General Assembly Ray Foley has just silenced Bob Fosse, delegate from Lower Slobovia. Eleanor Erickson, the second great Eleanor to represent the U.S. in this governing body, rises and says a few hundred words.

You take a look around at the different persons not officially connected with the group. You see Charlie Francis and Bob Gilmartin, two television camera men you know from school days, and there's Emil Liebewein, a technician for the telesmell, the newest thing in the communication field, invented by Herb Heimov. Up in little sound-proof rooms you see several translators. Interpreting Spanish is Mary Martucci, French—Marilyn Johnson, German—Rita Christians, and Russian—Lawrence Barrows, a retired Yale professor.

In the reporters box you see Judy Ruinick, news editor of the Connecticut Herald, Pat Mines, Bev Farber, and Sandra Schor, fashion editors of Vogue, and Bob Wareing, noted sports reporter.

You seat yourself next to Connie Garber, maker of Garber's Garter Gum (the kind that stretches!) The seats to the other side of you are soon filled by Carol Sawyer, Liz Robbins, Nancy Barney, and Judy Phinney who are here to promote good will. In front of you sit Judy Thompson and Gail Howe, talking together as usual, as well as Bob Swett, and a few other business officials.

Finally you decide to leave. You wander into the Kurth Koffee Shop. A pert waitress, Theresa Aubey, rushes to take your order. Short-cook Marlin Briggs fixes things up for you, and your Cote Coffee, Graml Graham Crackers, and Krivitz Cruellers are before you. Neil McKirdy comes into the shop and starts speling off quotations from a former teacher's version of Macbeth. You decide that this is a good place to stay away from, and thus leave.

Deciding to call up the little woman and ask her out for the evening you enter the Wennerberg Drugstore. Ann

W. J. Berg, famous New York columnist, keeps you waiting for the use of the telephone. Finally, David Frusch, a store clerk, shows you where there is another phone. The operator, Carolyn Ebers, dials your number and your wife soon answers. You ask her out for a movie date at Olmsted's Opera House to see Talbot's "Tales of Truck Driving," but she says she'd much rather go to the Roy Nightclub (owned by Phyllis and Tom) for dinner and dancing. You accept her suggestion and decide to meet her at six in front of the Presutti School For Rich Girls, where Dick Roberts, Dick Landon, and Bob Hooper are instructors.

Since it is only four o'clock, you try to kill time by doing a little window shopping on Fifth Avenue. The first shop on the left is Barbara Baker's Bakery, where two old friends of yours work, Jackie Brophy and Laureen Jensen. Next door is French's French Beauty Salon where hairdressers Theresa Casparino and Lorraine Brouillette create styles for Harriot Fuller, Barbara Quealey, Iris Cohen, Jean Naylor, and other famous models.

You interrupt your dream shopping to look at a pretty group of nurses (Ann Gustafson, Joan Langen, Carol Ohlson, Betty Reed, Ellen Ann Reynolds and Carol Rochon) who run by you. Who's chasing them? Wouldn't you know? It's that popular veterinarian, House Leopold!

On the other side of the street you notice the Marcus Employment Agency. Just out of curiosity, you make inquiries and find that the Zito and Zocco Secretarial Services has offered the biggest demand on this agency and has in the past hired secretaries Agatha Martin, Shirley Edgar, Joan Hislop, Gloria Montano, Pat Pardo, Judy Richmond, Sandra Sanford, Nancy Snow, and Edith Tongren. Marvon Hart, famous mathematician, and Mary Ann McMahon, noted research worker for the Warner Dictionary Co., also are looking for good secretaries. In a special listing there are noted two other names Barbara Surgenor and Lois Winer, who would like to operate a rocketship to Mars "to get away from it all."

You continue your walk and nearly fall over Beverly Spillaine, a juvenile court worker, who is talking to Judy Hansen, a laboratory technician. You stop at a little florist shop, Ross's Rose Palace, and pick up a nice bouquet for your wife.

As the two of you enter the nightclub, har-check girls, Yvette Bedard and Janice Bean, take your coats and hats, and head waiter Tom Brennan ushers you to a table where you are in full view of the floor show.

At the next table you notice Carole Bullot, Phyllis Antarb, and Judy Rottner, three prominent dental authorities who are in New York for a convention. After waiting several minutes, a waiter, John Boyce, appears and takes your order for champagne and the ten-dollar dinner.

A cute little cigarette girl, Ginny Collins, makes the rounds and offers you a selection of several brands.

You notice the grand entrance of Corinne Jensen, a famous Metropolitan Opera singer, at this time with her escort, John Welsh, a multimillionaire. Following them, several high military officers enter, including Bill Hines, Joe O'Conner, Art Payne, Norman Stuart, Jack Thomas, and Burt Lucas. Close on their heels you see several airline hostesses and other air workers who are taking the night off. Among them you recognize Joan Oberl, Jo-Ann Projeiti, and Marilyn Garvin.

You admire the wall murals, designed and painted by Ward Milliot, the curtain patterns designed by Jane Partridge, and the general good looks of the place. Finally your meal arrives. You eat, drink, and are merry.

The floor show is about to begin. Master of Ceremonies, George Milliot, announces the band for the evening, Thorne's Troubadors, featuring Barbara Castells, flute; Ken Holton, trombone; Allen Humes, tuba, Marvin Von Deck, violin and the maestro himself playing the trumpet. Mar. "What a band!"

The first piece of entertainment is a singing duet consisting of Joan Cherof and Charlie Crawford singing their own arrangement. The Five G's, the nightclub's chorus line of pretty little maidens, is on next. From left to right you see Glover, Goldman, Gorman, Green, and Grover. Number three on the show is Ted Johnson, a famous magician, who presents one of his greatest feats—taking a hat out of a rabbit. He is interrupted by a very polished singer, Joe Racamello. M. C. Milliot then introduces Bob Mathews (the octet minus seven and a half) who interrupts his own performance to comb his hair and fix his tie. At the conclusion of this act you take one of your Carter's Big Liver Tablets to settle your nerves.

You dance a while, then head for home, paying the cashier Betty Freeman as you leave. The Strucks and Orbeck Taxi Company is at your service, and driver Jack Lundborg is very hospitable. He turns on the cab radio and you listen in to the late news. Announcer Betty Levine is at the mike.

"Socialites Carolyn Swanson and Elaine Nelson are now being held captive in Sweden for being unloyal (Unloyal Swedes?—Never!!) . . . Carolyn Smith has just won the Mrs. America Contest, runners up being Ann Harris and Pat Hungerford . . . The LaPenta & LaPointe Ladies Wear Co. is involved in a suit—of all things! . . . The owners of the McCarthy and McClintock Gold Finding Corporation claim they're quitting their enterprise, as they have found something much better—men!" The gal gossipier signs off with an ad for Rooney's Personality Palace. Radio-man Bob Strickland announces the time as eleven thirty just as you arrive home.

You enter the house and prepare for bed. You take one last look at the society notes in the morning paper before retiring. You note that the former Misses Jane Buckley, Shirley Burgess, Madeline Straka, Carol Perrott, Janet Evenson, Joan Kerr, and Nancy Gadd have recently married some of the town's finest business men. Roberta Cosby, Janet Corning, and Barbara Cowie are co-chairwomen of the school P.T.A.; and Wilma Lasky and Joy Levin are putting on a tea.

As you wander into dreamland, your wife is still chatting about her many successful friends. Names like Leggett, Lopedota, Warren, Ksley, Hospod, Kawolczyk, Iannetta, Houston, Talbot, Tubbs, and Jacobsen cross through your semi-conscious state.

Another day has elapsed. Eee—gadds man, was it worth it??

COLLEGE NIGHT

We consider our local colleges.

Our parents are interested, too.

One of the most beneficial programs introduced at Hall this past year was that of College Night. During one Wednesday evening in November the senior students and their parents were given the opportunity of meeting representatives from forty-six colleges in the New England area. At this time questions were answered concerning applications and the various activities offered at these schools. Judging from the large turnout there is no doubt that College Night proved to be an enormous success. Because of this response more College Nights will be held in the future years to help students at Hall make wiser decisions concerning their college careers.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student government has always played a big part at Hall High School, with the representatives acting as the voice of the students. The council offers valuable experience in parliamentary procedure and encourages its members to alert thinking on many pertinent problems. The constitution states that the purpose of the council is to incite an appreciation of democratic privileges in the student, to further the general welfare of the school, and to unify the school's organizations. Those people elected to the positions of representatives and alternates assume a great deal of responsibility.

This year the council has again done a commendable job with the Gaety, which was held in March. The money acquired from the games and general admission was divided among the various clubs with the rest going to the 1952 Gaety scholarship. Once again, under the leadership of Miss Mary Cushman, Dean of Students, the student council and the Gaety had another successful year.

SENIOR ADVISORY BOARD

The Senior Advisory Board, composed of representatives elected in September from the senior homerooms, has some of the most important duties at Hall. The board is responsible for the selection of nominees for the Senior Class officers and for committees planning the Senior Harvest Dance, Class Night, Senior Reception, and Graduation. The Senior Advisory Board has accomplished much this year under the guidance of Miss Catherine Stevenson as faculty adviser.

Education makes a people easy to lead, but difficult to drive; easy to govern, but impossible to enslave.

HONOR SOCIETY

Each year the Hall Chapter of the National Honor Society selects from the junior and senior classes those students whose scholastic averages are 85 or better and whose character and service to the school have been outstanding. These Society members are always available to tutor students who need extra help in maintaining passing marks. The Society, under the faculty leadership of Mrs. Helen Rives, sponsors the annual Gaiety and also undertakes the task of selling tickets for it. A part of the proceeds from this festivity is divided among the numerous clubs participating in the Gaiety, while the rest goes into a scholarship awarded each year to a deserving member of the graduating class.

The officers of the Hall Chapter for the 1951-1952 school year are President, Mary Ann McMahon, Vice President, Ed Dibble; Secretary, Karen Berglund; Treasurer, Eero Raig, and student council delegates, Betty Borteson and Robert Thorne.

The National Honor Society, as its name implies, is a nationwide organization. Many of the country's prominent people have been and are now enrolled in its ranks. The official emblem, which may be purchased by Society members, is a golden torch on an engraved background.

GIRLS' LEADERS CLUB

Practical experience in leadership and good training for a prospective physical education teacher are provided by the Girls' Leaders Club, which holds its meetings on the second Monday of each month. The members are chosen for their good sportsmanship, athletic ability, and leadership. They umpire for the field hockey, basketball, and baseball games, and lead classes in square dancing. This year the group also went to see the Ice Capades in New Haven and held a few joint meetings with the Boys' Leaders Club.

BOYS' LEADERS CLUB

This year the Boys' Leaders Club has proven itself an extremely useful asset to the Hall High athletic program. Not only do these boys facilitate and speed up the distribution of baskets and towels at the beginning and end of the gym periods, but they greatly help to lighten the load of the gym teachers. Taking attendance, assisting in the instruction of fundamental athletic skills, and helping to record test marks are all part of their job. Two or three boys are assigned to each period, the same group taking the same period every day. There is no scholastic credit attached to this job. Those who have given up a study period to perform this service definitely deserve our most heartfelt thanks.

MONITORS

In January the Senior monitors relinquished their posts to the Juniors. The names of the new monitors were submitted by the retiring Seniors and the student council. These nominations were approved after a check of their scholastic achievements and their citizenship. Their duty is to direct students in the corridors swiftly but safely. With the cooperation of the students, these monitors, under the direction of Miss Mary Cushman, contribute a great deal to the order of Hall High.

FOREIGN POLICY CLUB

A student branch of the state-wide Foreign Policy Association was organized last September at Hall, under the guidance of Mrs. Helen Rives. Many matters of international importance were discussed at the club's meetings, and the members attended lectures and discussions by internationally prominent speakers. Several gatherings with students from other public and private schools were held during the year. Officers of the club were Robert Potter, president; Ellen Reynolds, vice president; Elaine Nelson, secretary; Carol Sawyer, treasurer, and David Hurwitz, chairman of the program committee.

SERVICE CLUB

One of our new and most needed clubs at Hall is the Service Club, supervised by Miss Mary Cushman. Membership in this club is strictly voluntary. The Service Club performs a variety of jobs. The members take tickets and usher at concerts, do extra typing, act as receptionists for the health room, serve refreshments at dances, and distribute notices to the classrooms. Because most of this work is done behind the scenes, this hard-working club deserves much recognition.

HISTORY CLUB

History's highways and byways were explored by a group of Hallites, members of the History Club, guided by Mr. Howard Goody. Formed for the purpose of becoming more acquainted with current events and the history of our state and nation, this club met informally twice a month in room 112. Club Officers were President, Ed Dibble, Vice-President, Margery Biech, and Secretary-Treasurer, Joyce Marcus. Trips to local points of historical interest, plus informative studies in government, put the word "Success" on the Club's activities.

With Appreciation

We, the members of the class of 1952 wish to express our thanks to the custodians, who do such a marvelous job in keeping up our school, and to the cafeteria staff, who prepare our delicious meals. Without the help of both these staffs Hall could not have been such a well-kept school throughout our high school years

Surely a dance at Hall could not be a success if the custodians did not render their much appreciated service and time. This behind-the-scenes assistance which they so willingly give us is one of the most important factors in the success of the occasion.

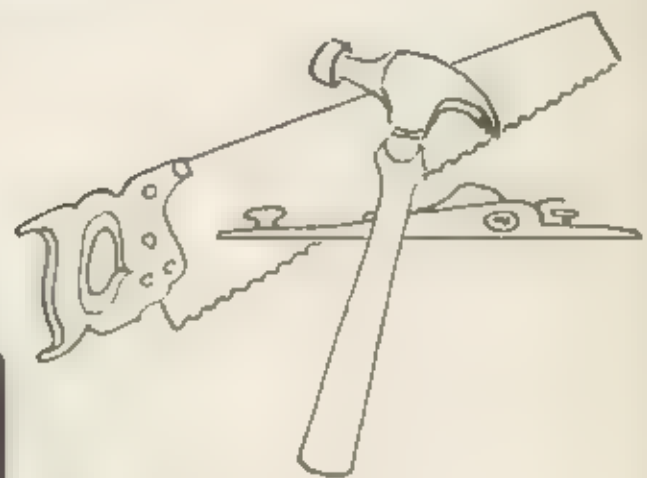

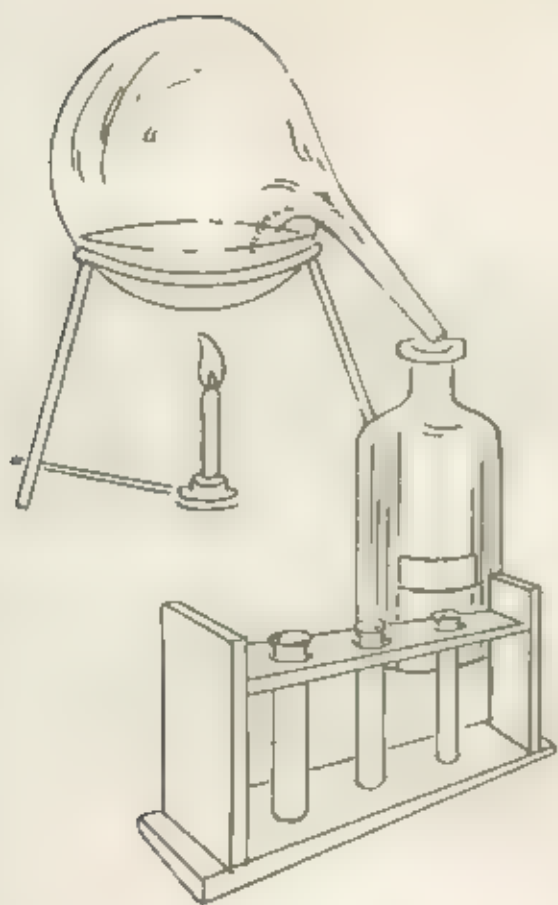

We also want to thank Viola, with her friendly smile, who always seems to be at hand when she is needed. The girls especially appreciate her assisting them with their corsages.

None of us will forget the festive air that the cafeteria possessed during the intermission when refreshments were served. Neither shall we forget the delicious cakes and desserts the members of the cafeteria staff made for us. The members of both these staffs, whose help has made our years at Hall far more pleasant, deserve our thanks.

TECHNICAL

Perhaps the most valuable result of all education is the ability to make yourself do the thing you have to do, when it ought to be done, whether you like it or not; it is the first lesson that ought to be learned; and however early a man's training begins, it is probably the last lesson that he learns thoroughly.

—THOMAS HENRY HUXLEY

Hall in the lab

Three major Science courses are offered at Hall. Biology, offered in sophomore through senior years, deals with the structure and behavior of living things—plants, insects, and animals. Students are given a chance to dissect actual specimens and make various collections in connection with different phases of the work. Physics is offered to juniors and seniors. Students taking this course study forces, energy, power, sound, light, electricity, and heat along with atomic structure and behavior. A large well-equipped laboratory is used in this course. Chemistry, for seniors only, introduces to the student the fundamental principles of atomic structure, elements and their compounds, and basic chemical reactions. The five period week is divided into four discussion periods and one lab period.

The Mathematics department is one familiar to everyone at Hall. It plays a big part in both the college preparatory and the business curricula. Algebra, geometry, business math, and senior math, an advanced course, are offered. In these courses students not only develop their power of reasoning but also acquire a practical vocational training in the fundamentals of mathematics.

Under the direction of Mrs. Ida Cion, six students meet weekly to study flowers, gardens, and house plants. These informal meetings could be called "workshop" periods, because the club members put to use the knowledge they had gained by doing actual work with floral arrangements and plant care. Club members participated in flower shows in this area and worked diligently to exhibit beautiful displays.

During the past year the members of the Chess Club have had many interesting experiences competing among themselves and participating in matches with other schools. Under the supervision of Mr. Alfred W. Lincoln, the game was taught to those who wished to learn, while those familiar with the game improved their strategy. One of the annual attractions of the Gaiety was the demonstration put on by six club members. Each of these competed against one outside expert for the prize of a pocket chess set.

COMMERCIAL SUBJECTS

Commercial subjects play a vital part in the curriculum at Hall. They prepare the student for all types of office jobs after graduation and even during summers and after-school hours. A wide variety of subjects is offered including business math, commercial law, shorthand, typing, and office practice.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Much of the noise in the basement corridor can be blamed on the boys in the shops. These students are taking advantage of the extensive industrial arts program offered by William Hall High School. Boys electing the Industrial program are offered training in wood craft, machine and tool work, and mechanical drawing. The well-equipped shops and able instructors give students a chance to learn to use their hands and their brains in close coordination.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

When a group of girls get together at Home Economics Club meeting, interesting ideas for the home are sure to come forth. This year club members, supervised by Miss Marion Jones, made candy apples, which they sold to the basketball squad and to the teachers. They also made candles which were given as Christmas presents or were used on their own Thanksgiving dinner table. The club invited the Literary Club to a lecture on Christmas tree decorations.

DRAMATIC CLUB

We shall always remember Eter Since Eve and Every Family Has One, the very successful productions given by the ever-popular Dramatic Club in our sophomore and junior years. "Martie" Wilson directed the play in our sophomore year and was succeeded by Mr. Paul DeHa in our junior year and half of our senior year. Mr. Leonard Keogh acted as adviser for our last semester. The club has continued to furnish the school with high standard productions and fine entertainment this year. The Dramatic Club was organized not only to present plays but also to help those interested in gaining the technical knowledge involved in the producing of plays, including the art of scenic backgrounds, make up, and other important phases of dramatics. The officers for this year were President, Mary Winters, Vice-President, Henry Holt; Secretary, Ellie Wahlberg, Treasurer, Emily Graham and Publicity Manager, Bob Potter.

ART CLUB

Many of the art exhibits which adorn the display windows in front of the office are visible proof of the artistic talent at Hall. Few of us have ever walked through the corridors at Hall without seeing numerous examples of the Art Club's work. Football, basketball, and dance posters have always been produced and displayed in time to assure a large attendance at these events. The activities of the club are varied and range from watercolor to oil painting. The club's projects change with the seasons. In all their many endeavors the fledgling artists thoroughly enjoy themselves while learning new skills.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Pictures are an important means of preserving vital events. In Hallmarks, photographs will bring back golden memories. One can thus easily see that the Photography Club holds an important position at Hall. The Photography Club has two main objects: to further interest in photography at Hall and to increase technical knowledge of the subject within the club. The members operate a small but well-equipped dark room, where they develop their own pictures. This year, under the leadership of Mr. Harold Rossiter and President Roy Johnson, the group visited studios in the Greater Hartford area to increase and broaden their knowledge of photography.

DANCE CLUB

Take well-proportioned girls, add six long months of practice, costumes that are designed for the eye, a terrific stage set, and a large amount of perfect timing. Season delicately with appropriate music and enjoy. Serves approximately six hundred people. This is, of course, the recipe for the Gaiety Chorus Lines, number one off-spring of the Dance Club. Early in November these girls were chosen from about fifty eager aspirants, all of whom had been taught one simple dance step. Supervised by Mrs. Mabelle Whiting and coached by President Jackie Watson, the group was gradually molded into the major attraction at Gaiety Night.

MUSIC

The Class of 1917 has been the witness to the tremendous development of Hall High's music department. Mr. Frank Groff, director of music in the West Hartford schools, set a spark of musical fervor in our town when he arrived in our ninth grade year. Mr. William Lauer, our capable leader, worked diligently in cooperation with Mr. Groff and together they turned that spark into a flame of enthusiasm which is growing bigger every year.

On his first morning at Hall three years ago, Mr. Lauer was greeted by a marching band of less than twenty-five members. Each morning the band arrived at eight o'clock and practiced for an hour in the cold autumn air so that the school might enjoy a superb half-time show at the football games. By our senior year the band had become one of the finest marching bands in the state of Connecticut.

Surely Hall High can be proud of its spirited marching band which has not been outdone on the football field

Last Christmas, as the spotlights shone through the beautiful stained glass windows and the trumpet trio spoke from the balcony, the audience was thrilled by the candlelit processional of the Hall High choir. This Christmas, for the first time, the orchestra joined the choir in the magnificent and inspiring performance. Together they did Fred Waring's "Night Before Christmas." It was really superb and illustrated the results obtainable with the orchestra and the choir working in close cooperation. Also participating in the Christmas concert were the Boys' and Girls' Glee Clubs. Under the direction of Mr. Lauer these organizations did a marvelous job. Another relatively new organization which participated in the concert was the mixed chorus. This group is open to all who love to sing.

In the spring concert the concert band gave its first public performance of our senior year. Truly this group has come a long way since our sophomore year. It has grown not only in size but also in quality, the factor that gave it one of the highest ratings possible in the statewide band festival held in Stratford this spring. Also appearing at the concert was the dance band, which had provided popular music at the Gaiety and Christmas concert. This group has always been popular no matter when or where it has played.

The Hall Highlighters, new in our junior year, were seen coast to coast on the "Horace Heidt Television Show" and won fame on other radio and television programs. Another vocal group which has developed since our arrival at Hall is the Male Octette (plus 1, 2, 3, 4). Although not so famous as the Highlighters, the quality of their music is equally satisfying to the ear.

In the instrumental line, one of the most worthwhile contributions to Hall's school spirit has been the Troubadors. Working with the newly formed Boosters Club, they supplied music at all of our noble football rallies and they kept up the spirit at most of the home basketball games. Also performing for pep rallies and basketball games were the "Miserable Three," a strictly informal trio which was more or less miserable as the occasion demanded.

Some of the members of the music department succeeded in entertaining the audience at the Gaiety and other performances with the German band. Dressed in hilarious costumes, they put on several comedy shows which kept the auditorium in laughter through their portion of the show.

Truly this spark of music which started in our school four years ago has grown into a brilliant flame. Dozens of new organizations have been formed, and many shows have been put on that were not dreamed of a few years ago. As long as there are ambitious students and capable leaders, our music department will continue to set ablaze the school spirit in our hearts.

FRENCH CLUB

Bonjour, mes amis is the friendly greeting given by members of the French Club, who have gathered together in regular meetings throughout the year to learn more about the language of lovers and diplomats the world over. Quiz programs and French song fests were two of the varied activities in which the group participated during the school year. Guiding French students in their search for a better understanding of the people and the language was President Francis Lewis, who was assisted by Vice President Ellen Wahlberg, Secretary Louise Libby, and Treasurer Sue Crane. PANELDISC

The arguments grow more heated every time the Hall Paneldisc meets. This organization, the school's debating society, discusses everything from high school sororities and fraternities to world rearmament, thereby educating its members in the power of oratory. During the course of the year, under the leadership of faculty adviser Mr. Lloyd Nickerson, numerous debates were held between members of the Paneldisc and students from other schools. Discussions which concerned many Hallites were heard by the whole student body in assembly hall. Officers elected by the club were President, Richard Downes, Vice-President, Ronald Rentz; Secretary, Joan Billups; and Treasurer, Robert Murray.

SPANISH CLUB

Spanish is the language of millions of Latin American and European citizens and to gain a more thorough knowledge of its world-wide importance, several Hall students have become members of the Spanish Club. Under the excellent guidance of Mr. Richard Flynn, exchange teacher from England, the club members have gone far toward learning about the language and the people who speak it. Officers elected by the organization were President, Mary Martucci; Vice-President Betsy Kaehle; and Secretary-Treasurer Janet Hallenbeck.

GERMAN CLUB

To educate themselves in the German tongue and the background from whence it developed, a number of Hall students became members of the German Club. The scenic beauty, the customs, and the language of Germany were closely studied by this club group under the guidance of Miss E. Jane Miller. Together the members learned a great deal about the history and romance of this war-torn country. LATIN CLUB

Representing the classical tastes at Hall, the Latin Club attracted those students of Latin who were interested in broadening their knowledge of Roman life and customs as well as their general academic background. The eloquent language spoken by the subjects of the Roman Empire became more familiar in the club meetings where even the Club's offices were patterned after those of ancient times. Officers of the group were as follows: Consules, Carol Rochon and Marian Mays, and Scriba, Paula Nathanson. Miss Ruth Stearns was the faculty adviser.

MOTION PICTURE OPERATORS

The motion picture operators, under the guidance of Mr. Donald Lindsey, deserve recognition for their splendid service. This year these students have had the opportunity to learn how to operate all the audio-visual equipment. The members have given up much of their time in order that two operators will always be free to run the machines when it is necessary. Educational films have added much color to biology, chemistry, American and Modern History, and the language courses at our school.

HALL HIGHLIGHTS

The Hall Highlights, under the guidance of Mrs. Margaret Burdett, has carried on its reputation for being an excellent medium in presenting items of interest concerning sports, clubs, and other school activities, besides being a practical educational instrument for those who worked on its staff. This year's editor, Ed Dibble, worked zealously in publishing the paper and kept all the departments humming with activity.

Praise should be given to Ed's associates for their untiring efforts in gathering news, writing features, soliciting advertisements, and typing up the material. In charge of the various departments were Pat Mines, Feature Editor, Barbara Rubinow and Dyke Spear, News Editors, Ann Weberg, Social Editor, Betsy Kaehle and Bob Wareing, Sports Editors, Ray Foley, Business Manager, Elsie Erickson, Subscription Manager, Dick Dole, Advertising Manager, Karen Berglund, Exchange Editor, and Roy Johnson, Photographer.

In October several staff members attended the Connecticut Scholastic Press Association Convention in Meriden, where Highlights Editor Ed Dibble delivered the student address. There he won first place in the news-writing contest and third place in the editorial-writing competition.

During the first part of December, Highlights conducted its annual fund-raising campaign for underprivileged families in West Hartford. The overwhelming response reflected credit on both the school and the newspaper.

Our student publication's crusade for the Cornerstone Club, its Twentieth Anniversary Issue, and its June Graduation Number won't soon be forgotten by the Class of '52.

LITERARY CLUB AND RENAISSANCE

The purpose of the Literary Club, advised by Miss Jane Miller, has been to arouse interest at Hall in the various aspects of literary endeavor. Many new members joined with those from last year's group to plan and enjoy a very successful year. Trips were made to both the Avery Memorial Museum and the Hartford Times. The group enjoyed talks by two exchange teachers in the West Hartford system, Mr. Richard L. Flynn of England and Mr. Charles Bilcliff of New Zealand.

A function of major importance to Literary Club members is the sponsorship of Renaissance, Hall's literary magazine. This year the Renaissance staff, elected from the club's ranks and headed by Frances Lewis, spent much time and effort in checking, typing, and proof reading material submitted by Hall's "budding" authors, and in handling the business affairs of the magazine.

Guided by Miss Miller, both the club and magazine have helped to teach members how to improve and enrich their lives by acquaintance with good books and opportunities in group work and self expression.

Literature is the greatest of all sources of refined pleasure, and one of the great uses of a liberal education is to enable us to enjoy that pleasure.

Medical assistance is always at hand

Every happening in your daily life has some effect on your future—morally, mentally, emotionally, socially, and physically. That is why Hall High School has endeavored to offer you a well balanced program with emphasis on all aspects of healthful living. There are many people responsible for these accomplishments. Our school physician, Dr. Frank McCarthy, and our school nurse, Miss Olive Brannard, have the responsibility of keeping us physically fit. Our faculty members and counselors put much effort and time in guiding us when we need help to make our own decisions. They also try to help us plan our educational and vocational futures. May the value of the knowledge and experience which have been offered to us be of real assistance in helping us adjust to the world in which we live.

BOYS' BOWLING CLUB

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Stuart the Boys Bowling Club, composed of eight teams of four members each met every Wednesday afternoon at the West Hartford Bowling Alleys. Peter Davison and Howard Westberg were elected managers of the teams, which competed for a cup donated by the West Hartford Alleys and cash prize each year with the winner of the winning team. One of the main events of the year was the tournament match with the Girls Bowling Club.

SWIMMING CLUB

As the Swimmers Club began another season, once again the smiling, happy faces of twenty-seven eager swimmers could be seen each Thursday afternoon at the Hartford YWCA. Under the leadership of Miss Justine Clark, these girls were taught the fundamentals of personal and senior life saving. Ann Cove assisted in teaching the junior life saving class. For an hour each week the club swimmers received instruction but found time for recreation as well. During the year several interscholastic swimming meets were held and some of Hartford's girl swimmers earned honors.

GIRLS' BOWLING CLUB

Bowling Club offers a splendid chance to both newcomers and experienced bowlers to develop skill in this ever popular sport. Every Monday afternoon (even weeks) under the direction of Miss Yolanda Garavaglia, meet for an hour of exercise and enjoyment at the West Hartford Bowling Alley. At the end of the season the team winning the tournament had the honor of having its name engraved on a large cup. Among the other prizes awarded were those for the highest score and the top average.

ARCHERY CLUB

Last Monday and Wednesday afternoon sessions in the Hall's south classroom were held. The Archery Club was practicing. Their meetings were divided into two one-hour sessions because of the club's enormous size. Under the supervision of Miss Lillian Clark, the group was instructed and trained in a sport which is becoming increasingly popular in many colleges today. Much of the success of the group was due to the expert management of Connie Brisson and Sally Kessler.

FIELD HOCKEY

The opening of school signified the beginning of the field hockey season. All classes turned out enthusiastically to practice for the big games of the season. Everyone tried her hardest to learn and to improve upon the hockey skills, attempting at the same time to keep out of the way of the many swinging sticks. Our first play-day was with East Hartford. A plucky, but inexperienced Hall team lost 2-1. The other games of the season, scheduled with New Britain and Manchester were canceled because of bad weather. The seniors on the team were Ginny Benson, Gail Bockus, Ann Cave, Dor Davis, Jay Hallenbeck, Alice Livingston, Pat Pardo, and Ann Weberg.

TENNIS

The Tennis Club tournament is the most popular spring sport for girls. Practices are begun indoors early in April. By May the tournament is in full swing with everyone hoping to win. Matches are played whenever and wherever possible. The losers of each match form the consolation tournament. This is one of the finest arrangements made in girls sports for it allows everyone to continue the game. The tournament helps to promote good sportsmanship. Among the participants were Marilyn Croteau, Carolyn Ebers, Betty Levine, Betsy Kaehrle, and Carol Sawyer.

SOFTBALL

The softball season this year was short because of rainy weather which flooded our field and delayed our early practices. Once under way, however, it rolled along smoothly with an enthusiastic turnout. On Monday and Wednesday afternoons one could see the girls bating the ball and running the bases, hoping to lead their team on to victory. The games that were planned with the neighboring schools had to be cancelled because of the continued bad weather. Some of the members were Jinny Benson, Alice Livingston, Dot Davis, Barbara Jensen, Marilyn Mays, and Carol Sue Rodimon.

BASKETBALL

The most widely enjoyed sport among the girls at Hall is basketball. This season is the longest, beginning after Christmas and lasting until March. The forwards attempt to improve their scoring ability, hoping that each ball will go through the hoop. The guards practice getting in the way of the forwards, hoping to stop the ball before it sinks into the basket. The play-day planned with New Britain was successful, and our team proved that "practice makes perfect." The team consisted of Jinny Benson, Gail Bockus, Ann Cave, Dot Davis, Betsy Kaehrle, Alice Livingston, and Pat Pardo.

SCHOOL SPIRIT

High High school spirit was given a strong injection of enthusiasm by the formation of the Boosters Club in the fall of 1951, the beginning of our Senior year.

By enlarging Sterling Field to seat a capacity of 5000, offering season tickets to adults, and giving Booster stickers for the fans of High, school spirit was renewed.

The Boosters Club did not stop there, however. They organized a car cavalcade to go to the games, held pep rallies on Goodman's Green, and sponsored a Father's Day and a Homecoming Dance.

To raise our spirits at the games were our cheerleaders, who brought new and old cheers for us to use in spurring our team to the victories we wanted so much.

Our High High Band played excellently, and its formations on the field were top quality. The twirlers in their blue and white uniforms kept the crowds entertained during halftime by exhibiting their whirling batons.

All in all, it may be said that something great has been inspired at High: spirit, potential spirit that broke forth excitedly when the Boosters Club was organized.

1951 BASEBALL

With the retirement from active coaching of veteran mentor Eric Norfeldt, the piloting of the Hall baseball team fell to newly appointed coach Bob McKee. Prospects for the young coach's first season were dimmed early when Captain John Ruzzbasen was declared ineligible. The Captaincy then went to Captain-elect for the year, Jack Barton. Besides Ruzzbasen, who would be unable to play there were only three other returning lettermen. These included Bob Brabec, George Beaudry, and Jack Preissner. However, by the end of the season Coach Bob had molded together a starting lineup that went like this. Behind the plate was Bob Brabec, who, besides doing a fine job throughout the year, ended up second in the fielding department. On first base was Roger Johnson, Captain-elect for the '52 season and number one man in the fielding department. Roger committed only four errors in 150 chances. On the second sack was Captain Jack Barton, who took third place in the race for fielding honors. Buddy Sterpka held down the third base position, and Dick Kalinowski did a fine job of filling the hole between second and third base. Way out in the daisy patch one could find George Skinner at left, Russ Brignano at center, and Gary Snell at right field. Back on the mound there were John Welsh, who finished the season with the best earned-run average, Dick Ginn, Jack Preissner, and relief pitcher Bob Robinson. Although he hurled in over half the games, Bob got credit for only one win and no losses.

Several of the losses that contributed to Hall's not too brilliant record of four wins and 12 losses can be traced to a lack of experience and much needed bunting power. At least three more games could have been pulled out of the fire by a hit or two in the last inning. In spite of last year's record, the team is looking forward to a good season in '52. There will be many players returning from last year's starting lineup, much improved by the experience and training gathered in the ill-fated season of '51.

Mussey Field was the scene of Hall's first game of the '51 season. Despite the efforts of Dick Ginn and Bob Robinson, the Blue and White dropped the game by a score of 8-0, Hall committing five miscues to Bristol's none.

Hall Field then saw the Westies come up with five runs in the ninth to lose a heartbreaker to Hamden 9-7, John Welsh going eight innings and Bob Robinson retiring the side in the ninth.

The Blue and White next traveled across the river to East Hartford where, after trailing most of the game, Hall rallied with two runs. The attempt was unsuccessful, and the Westies lost 4-2, Ginn going the distance.

Run!

Catch that ball!

It fell to John Welsh to cop the first win of the season. The team came through strong in the ninth to win by the slim margin of 4-3 over Manchester.

The 4th of May gave Hall another bad disappointment as Middletown took a decisive 7-1 victory over Ginn and relief pitcher Bob Robinson.

Jack Preissner started his first game when the Blue and White next traveled to Meriden. However, he found it rough going and it was Bob Robinson who retired the side in the ninth. The final score was 6-1 in favor of Meriden.

Hall fans had something to cheer about when the Westies won a thriller from Bulkeley in the ninth inning, 15-14, Ginn going seven innings and Robinson finishing and receiving credit for the victory.

Hopes for a successful season brightened when Welsh and Robinson led the way to a 13-8 victory over Weaver.

A returning gloom fell over loyal Hallites when Hamden High proved to be the sight of another loss, Ginn going the route for a 7-4 decision.

Poor support hindered Preissner as he was walloped 11-4 at Manchester, Robinson taking over in the seventh inning.

A game Blue and White team went down to defeat on its home field in spite of the best efforts of John Welsh. It was a real heart-breaker when the final score read Middletown 4, Hall 3.

On the 24th of May, Bill Nazel of Meriden stopped Hall 7-1, Ginn toiling throughout the game.

The next game the Westies dropped by the decisive margin of 8-0, Perrone doing a fine job for Weaver, and Preissner and Robinson working hard throughout the game for Hall.

East came West next and was soundly drubbed by the Blue and White, 8-2. The home team played a fine game, committing only one error and with pitcher John Welsh displaying only the best.

Again Welsh tried, but this time dropped a 7-2 score to a spirited Bulkeley team.

The Blue and White ended their season on a sour note as they dropped a 10-3 game to a really hustling team from Bristol that was reaching for state recognition. Pitcher Dick Ginn went the route for the Westies.

Senior letter men were Jack Barton, George Beaudry, Hoppy Hopkinson, and Jack Preissner. Returning letter men behind Captain-elect Roger Johnson will be as follows: seniors: Bob Brabec, Dick Ginn, Joe Rossano, George Skinner, Gary Snell, John Welsh, and juniors: Russ Brignano and Dick Kalinowski. Manager Mike Viollette also received his letter.

TRACK-1951

The 1951 Hall track squad, led by Co-Captain and star Dick Tingley, finished a very successful season with an excellent record. The Blue and White downed all dual meet competition except Bulkeley to take the C.C.I.I. championship, placed second in the C.C.I.I. meet at Wesleyan, and placed fourth at the annual Memorial Day Greater Hartford meet held at Trinity College. The Harper men also took second honors at the Sectional Trials at Storrs and captured fourth place in the state meet at Yale University. Three of our boys, Dick Tingley, Art McNeil, and Jay Layton, qualified for the New England meet which was held at Saxton's River, Vermont. At the New Englands, Layton tied for fifth in the high jump, McNeil tied for fifth in the pole vault, and Tingley took second place in the javelin throw.

Jay Layton broke the Greater Hartford high jump record with a leap of 5 ft. 10 $\frac{3}{8}$ in., and Dick Tingley broke both the school high jump record and the scoring record for a single season. He jumped 5 ft. 11 in. in the Manchester meet to take all honors and scored 144 points during the season to break Peterson's old record of 105.

Although most of the lettermen have graduated, prospects do not look too bad. Many boys proved themselves to be good competitors late in the season and will be the back-bone of the 1952 squad. Track Coaches Dale Harper and Hayes Kruger must be complimented for the excellent job they have done with the boys and should take a great deal of the credit for the fine season the squad enjoyed.

At a meeting of the lettermen following the season, Logan Clemow and John Stearns were elected to lead Hall's 1952 Track Team.

TENNIS

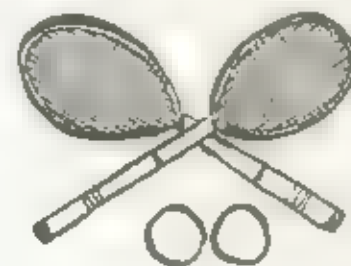

Hall's five-year reign in C.C.I.L. competition apparently was over as we began spring practice with only two holdovers from last year's squad, Ben Rothfeder and Captain-elect Don Burr. A squad was soon formed from twenty candidates. Burr, Rothfeder and Jay Grant held down the first three positions respectively, with Steve Weinstein, Cal Zieky Harold Katzman, and Art Gendler all vying for the number four spot.

In the first round of competition Hall won over Bristol 5-0, Manchester 5-0, Middletown 3-2, Meriden 4-1, and lost 2-3 to a strong Hamden team. In the second round with Rothfeder playing number one we lost to Hamden 2-3 and Manchester 1-4. Outside the league we lost to Weaver's state championship team 0-4 and 1-5, but came back strong to down Middletown 4-1 Bristol 5-0, and Meriden 5-0.

Hamden became the new C.C.I.L. champions, and Hall, with a season's record of seven wins and five defeats, wound up in second place. The best individual record was Ben Rothfeder's with fourteen victories and five defeats.

Nucleus for next season's squad is Rothfeder and Gendler, but if we are to recapture the C.C.I.L. plaque we must have more good players out for tennis in 1952.

The links rovers of William Hall High made the 1951 season an enviable one by compiling a record of nine victories and one defeat. The loss came at the hands of a previously beaten Weaver array and was the first loss suffered in two and one half years of dual meets. The complete record for three years of C.C.I.L. competition lists 39 victories against only 3 defeats and 2 ties. In the past five years, moreover, Hall has never placed lower than fourth in the state tournament.

At the start of the season Dick Clinton and Ron Perrott were the only experienced holdovers, but Dick Anderson, Harry McGlew, and Tom Roy soon came into their own and helped Mr. Hardy maintain Hall's reputation on the fairways. All these boys, plus newcomer Al Briggaman, are looking forward to a great season for W.H.H.S.

Captain Ronny Perrott won the State individual player award and the team finished the year in grand style by placing second in the state tournament.

Co Captains

As the football season approached, about 65 boys reported to Coaches Bob McKee, Chuck Hardy and Hayes Kruger. The line was strong and experienced, headed by lettermen Strat Gunning, Co-captain Don Deberry, Bill Perkins, John Stearns, Bill Smith and Dick Curran. Other linemen slated to see action as the first game approached were Henry Holt, George Skinner, Dick Nelson, Ray Desiderio, Dick Armstrong, Tom Barts, Bob Sutzkin, and Howie Leopold. The backfield, with the exception of Bob Brabec (Co-Captain), was entirely without experience and was a big question mark. Rugged Larry Barrows was chosen to take the fullback spot, and Bob Foisie and Gary Snell were selected as halfbacks. For backfield replacements McKee came up with Al Briggaman, Danny Lawler, Bill Hines, and Bob Turbie.

In the season's opener at Bristol, Hall was unable to protect a first period two touchdown lead as Bristol's Footballers fought back to eke out a 13 to 12 victory. Co-Captain Bob Brabec scored Hall's first touchdown on a 51-yard run from scrimmage, and then Bob Foisie scored with a 20-yard run. Bristol came back fast as O'Brian scored in both the second and third quarters and substitute Charlie Hoffman converted for the game-winning margin.

Hall traveled to Meriden, and, led by Bob Brabec's great performance, crushed Meriden High 12 to 0. Brabec scored twice on runs of 26 and 34 yards. Hall's line held the opposition's attack to 31 yards of ground.

In the first home game of the season, the Blue and White fell victim to a strong Manchester team, 47 to 21. The Silk City aggregation, led by star fullback Jim Roach, who registered four touchdowns, scored in every period and Hall was never in the ballgame. The lone bright spot in a drab afternoon for West Hartford was Bob Brabec's 78 yard scoring jaunt through the entire Manchester team. Hines and Barrows also scored for Hall late in the fourth period.

In a Dad's Day game at Sterling Field a highly routed Weaver eleven downed the Westies 34 to 14. The Greenies capitalized on two breaks late in the second period for touchdowns. Hall's failure to kick on fourth down deep in its own territory and an intercepted pass. Brabec scored in the first period from the 19 to cap a sustained drive, and a Brabec to Stearns pass, good for 14 yards, accounted for Hall's other touchdown in the third period. Bob Robinson added both extra points for the Westies in a fine exhibition of place kicking.

In a heroic stand at Middletown the Hall eleven succumbed 19 to 12. Middletown scored first, with Ciccarello taking the ball over. Hall then received the kickoff and marched the length of the field with Brabec scoring. The home team scored again in both the second and third periods, followed by another Hall march capped by Snell's 2 yard plunge. A feature of both the Westies scoring drives was Brabec to Stearns passes.

Touchdown runs of 90 and 82 yards by Co-Captain Brabec flattened a big Hamden eleven at Sterling Field on Band Day. Brabec scored all of Hall's three touchdowns and, together with Co-Captain Strat Gunning, sparked the Westies on defense in this 18 to 6 defeat of a C.C.I.L. rival.

Gary Snell and Larry Barrows starred in the 14-6 conquest of arch rival, East Hartford. Each scored, Barrows on an 86-yard return of an intercepted pass, and Snell on a 15-yard pass from quarterback Bob Brabec.

Hall closed out the season at low ebb, bowing to powerful Bulkeley at Municipal Stadium 45-14. Frank Mirabella and Don Rini ran wild for the Maroon, while Brabec figured in both West Hartford scores.

The McKee men wound up with a 3 and 5 record, but played excellent ball at times during the season. Co-Captain Bob Brabec was always a standout performer, as was Co-Captain Strat Gunning. Much credit should go to Coaches Bob McKee, Chuck Hardy, and Hayes Kruger for the fine job they did despite crippling injuries and lack of material. At a meeting of the Lettermen Dick Curran was elected Captain for the '52 season.

SOCCER

This year's Soccer Team had the most successful season in the history of Hall High School. Compiling a record of 11 victories in 12 starts, they went on to win the C.I.A.C. Class A B Soccer Championship, plus the C.C.I.L. Championship for the twelfth consecutive year.

The Soccer Team clinched the State Championship by defeating Manchester on November 8 at Wethersfield High School with a score of 1-0. The tally came in the second quarter on Richie Hungerford's penalty kick. In the last quarter Hall put down a desperate attempt to tie up the game, thus preventing a dual championship.

Captain Ken Swanson's absence from the team near the middle of the season, necessitated by an operation, was sorely felt.

Here is a brief review of the season's games, including the semi-final play-off with Wethersfield.

HALL 3, MANCHESTER 2

The Hall High Soccer Team started its season with a close victory over Manchester. Richie Hungerford scored twice, once in the first quarter, and again in the overtime, to decide the game. Captain Ken Swanson had caused the overtime by tying the score in the third quarter.

HALL 3, MERIDEN 0

Ken Swanson led Hall to its second victory in two starts. The scoring came in the third quarter with Richie Hungerford heading a blooper into the net, and Ken Swanson sinking a penalty kick. In the last quarter Swanson put his head to a nicely centered shot boosting the tally to 3-0.

HALL 2, WINDSOR 0

Goals by Bob Skendarian and Bert McTeague defeated Windsor in a bitterly fought contest.

HALL 3, BRISTOL 0

Hall promptly took the lead on a penalty kick scored by Captain Ken Swanson. Jim Smith tallied in the second quarter, and the third quarter saw Ken score again.

HALL 3, NEWINGTON 0

Ken Swanson paced Hall with two successful penalty kicks, with Bob Varsell heading the ball into the net for Hall's third goal.

ELLSWORTH 2, HALL 1

Despite a gallant fight, the Hall men lost their first and only game to Ellsworth. Bob Skendarian scored in the third quarter giving Hall its only goal.

HALL 4, MANCHESTER 2

Richie Hungerford starred as he scored three goals for Harper's boys. The final tally was scored by Ken Swanson in the last quarter.

HALL 1, WETHERSFIELD 0

After three deadlocked quarters, Richie Hungerford's slow roller into the net in the fourth gave the game to Hall.

HALL 3, MERIDEN 0

A long kick by Dick Kalinowski, right wing, stopped by Bert McTeague, and a shot past the goalie by Richie Hungerford clinched the C.C.I.L. title.

HALL 4, BRISTOL 0

Hall easily overcame Bristol in their second match, with goals scored by Richie Hungerford, Bob Varsell, and Paul Sweeney.

HALL 2, WETHERSFIELD 1

The semi-finals of the C.I.A.C. soccer tournament saw Hall win 2-1 over Wethersfield. The first half was scoreless, but John Thomas tallied in the third. The other point was scored in the last period by Richie Hungerford.

BASKETBALL

Hall's 1951-'52 basketball season started out with only two returning lettermen from the previous year's team which qualified for and reached the quarter finals of the State Tournament. These two, Allan Johnson and Wes Eustis, along with members of last year's junior varsity squad comprised this year's team. The lack of experienced ballplayers made it necessary for Coach Dale Harper to alter the starting lineup many times in an effort to find a winning combination. Under his expert coaching these boys developed into fine basketball players.

Perhaps the most talked about and publicized player in the district this year was center Wes Eustis, who with his fine rebounding and shotmaking broke the school scoring record held by Jack Preissner and the district scoring record held by "Mickey" Yellin of Weaver with a total of 337 points for the season and a game average of over 21 points. Another excellent and defensive ballplayer was Captain Allan Johnson, whose set shots consistently scored for the Harpemen. Ron Krivitz was also a high scorer and a good player. The rebounding strength of the team was divided between Eustis and Roy Johnson, a greatly improved player whose playing was deserving of credit. The two cleverest ball handlers and playmakers were Dick Curran and Dan Lawler, who were continually setting up scoring plays. Dick Zeigler, Mark Gassner, Tom Parker, Larry Barrows, and Bob Lasker saw considerable action and made good showings. A late addition to the team was Ken Swanson. Coming up fast in the latter part of the season was Bill Young whose set shooting and driving play made him a valuable asset. Rounding out the squad we have Art Polstein, Bob Osmond, and George Staib, who saw action with both varsity and junior varsity teams.

While this year's record was only four wins against twelve setbacks, this record need not seem very disappointing considering the caliber of Hall's opponents. Of the eight opposing teams, five qualified for the State Tournament Playoffs.

HALL 48, MERIDEN 55

Hall lost its first game of the season at Meriden 55-48 in spite of a fine fourth quarter comeback. Hall's poor foul shooting was the deciding factor of the game.

HALL 63, BULKELEY 61

In the first homegame of the season the Harpemen upset a favored Bulkeley team on a shot by Wes Eustis in the last seven seconds of the game. Allan Johnson and Ron Krivitz also played fine games.

HALL 52, BRISTOL 61

Bristol trailing at the half, went ahead in the third quarter and stayed there to give Hall its second defeat 61-52. Wes Eustis and Allan Johnson were high scorers with 18 and 13 points, respectively.

The buddle

HALL 34, WEAVER 47

Playing at the Weaver gym, Hall was set back 47-34 by a taller and more experienced Weaver team. Hall tried hard, but Weaver held the lead all the way

HALL 34, WINDHAM 52

Hall was kept in the losing column by Windham, the new addition to the C.C.I.L., 52-34. This was Hall's fourth defeat in five starts

HALL 54, MIDDLETOWN 31

With Wes Eustis scoring 24 points, Hall outclassed visiting Middletown, 54-33. This was number two in the win column for the Harpersmen.

HALL 63, EAST HARTFORD 50

Still on the homecourt, Hall downed rival East Hartford, 63-50. Wes Eustis, Ron Krivitz, and Allan Johnson were the high scorers for the night

HALL 56, MERIDEN 73

Even with Wes Eustis hooping 31 points Hall could not stem the Meriden threat as they pulled away in the third quarter to win, 73-56

HALL 70, EAST HARTFORD 63

Hall received its fourth win of the season downing East Hartford, 70-63, with Allan Johnson scoring 26 points to lead the Westies attack

HALL 58, MANCHESTER 60

The game with Manchester was a nip and tuck battle all the way with Manchester leading by only one point at the third quarter. However, a jump shot in the last three seconds of play by Manchester's captain brought the game to a close with a score of 60-58

HALL 38, BRISTOL 86

Playing away from home, Hall bowed gracefully to a superb Bristol ball club with a final score of 86-38

HALL 61, BULKELFY 63

With Bulkeley playing host, Hall was edged out 63-61. Hall made a determined threat in the fourth quarter, but it fell short. Wes Eustis with 27 points, set a new district scoring mark of 265 points.

HALL 44, WINDHAM 60

Hall, playing on home grounds, kept near Windham all the way until the fourth quarter when the visitors spurted ahead to put the game on ice with a score of 60-44

HALL 46, MANCHESTER 57

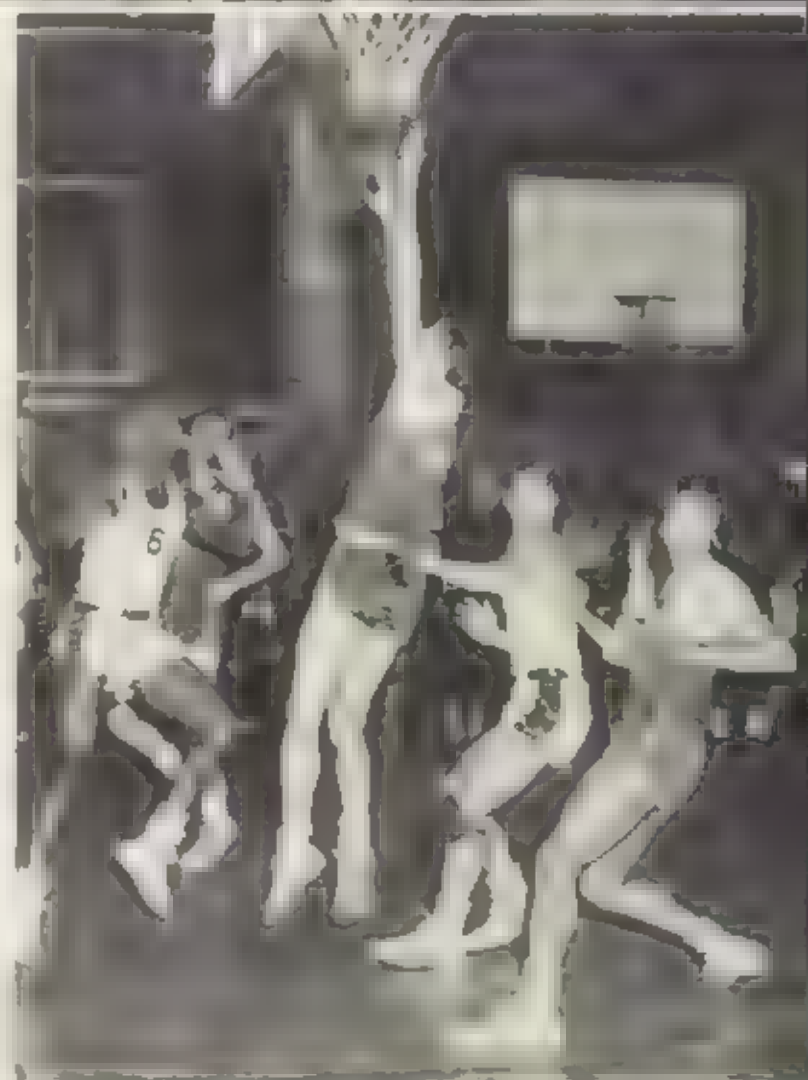

Manchester whipped Hall, 57-46, having held the lead throughout the game. However, Hall managed to close the gap to three points in the third quarter

HALL 42, MIDDLETOWN 47

In a big upset Middletown defeated Hall, 47-42, in a game which saw Wes Eustis scoring 21 points. Hall tied the game up in the second period but could not forge ahead

HALL 37, WEAVER 50

Hall was defeated by a tricky Weaver quintet, 50-37, before a capacity crowd. Weaver built up a large half-time advantage which weathered Hall's last half comeback with Bill Young hooping 12 points
